

Save the date! Please join us.

The CAOM 34th annual conference is coming to Victoria, BC this year for the first time. (The website is www.caom.ca).

Location: Inn at Laurel Point, Victoria, BC

Date: October 25 - 27, 2019 (Friday to Sunday)

Objective: the treatment of chronic pain

Target audience: mainly MDs, and certain allied health professionals
(Registration not yet open; information will be circulated later.)

Some of the themes this year include

- OPTIMUM HEALTH: nutrition, hormones and wellness
- Treating concussion and related after-effects
- Neuroplasticity
- How best to treat neuropathic pain
- What's new in migraine management
- How to best manage common sports injuries
- When to refer for radiofrequency neurotomy and anaesthetic procedures
- Regenerative procedures: prolotherapy, platelet-rich plasma and stem cells
- Topical medication beyond diclofenac
- Ultrasound guided procedures
- Nerve blocks
- Hyaluronic acid injections
- GENETIC TESTING - learn how testing can lead to life-changing differences
- Workshops (intro and advanced): manual medicine, prolotherapy and ultrasound-guided procedures including botox for dystonia & nerve blocks

Speakers: Drs. Corrie Graboski, Brent MacNicol, Marty Gallagher, Mansoor Mohammed, Gord Ko, Francois Louw, Doug Stoddard, Pam Squire, Pankaj Dhawan, Adrian Gretton and many others.